

As a Lloyd's Managing General Agent we have been writing Aviation Insurance across Canada since 1978. With Underwriters in both Ontario and BC, we can provide service across Canada with a local presence.

We are committed to a prompt and efficient level of service, which is focused on understanding the business needs of our clients. With a proven track record in market leadership, combined with expertise and a professional approach, we can provide capacity on either a lead or follow basis.

Utilizing our long-term relationships with both Brokers and Clients, we can develop innovative insurance solutions for all types of risks for the Canadian Aviation Industry, from the most basic coverage to geographically diverse and complex risks.

Our experienced underwriting team is able to provide tailor-made, competitive policies to match the desired exposures.
